THE TRAUMA OF GRIEF & LOSS

Rev. Aaron Payson of Unitarian Universalist Church in Worcester is the man we go to when tragedy strikes. His wisdom, compassion and understanding help us find meaning when things don't seem to make sense. He has presided over countless funerals and public remembrances and teaches a course at Worcester State University on the process of grieving. All of us will experience the pain of losing someone we love and there is no one better than Reverend Payson to help us regain our faith that life can be worthwhile again. He is truly a Godsend!

Due to generous grants, the series and lunch will be provided free of charge, however participants are asked to register at worcasts@gmail.com to ensure we have enough food.
